

Bill Wolff to display a series of photographs on Polaroid Chocolate film in the Mezzanine Gallery

The Delaware Division of the Arts Mezzanine Gallery will present an exhibition titled Chocolates by Bill Wolff from November 1-27, 2013. The Gallery, open weekdays from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., is located in the Carvel State Office Building, 820 N. French Street, Wilmington. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Friday, November 1 from 5:00-8:00 p.m. as part of Wilmington's Art Loop.

This solo exhibition of Bill Wolff's work will showcase a series of photographs which suggest the ethereal qualities of landscapes in the early morning fog. The photos were made using a Polaroid 250 Land Camera and expired Polaroid

Chocolate peel-apart film. In a time when apps replicate vintage cameras, the chocolate-brown tones and textures resulting from the film's wet emulsions suggest more emotionally and effectively a heightened sense of silence and mystery that comes with being in natural settings surrounded by fog.

Individual Artist Fellow in Photography, Bill Wolff has exhibited his work regionally and locally. The artist received his PhD from The University of Texas at Austin and currently lives in Bear, DE.
